

THE IOWA CAMPAIGN.

VOLUME XI.

IOWA, ALLEN COUNTY, KANSAS, SEPTEMBER 15, 1877.

NUMBER 38.

CURRENT EVENTS.

Ex-President Thiers, of France, died in Paris, on the 3d, of apoplexy. His sudden death created the greatest excitement throughout France, on account of the present critical political complication. M. Thiers being the acknowledged leader of the Republicans. President MacMahon ordered a Cabinet Council to arrange for solemnizing his funeral with the greatest pomp. Among the people the news of his death was received with the utmost grief and consternation, the general sentiment being that France had suffered a great National calamity. Louis Adolph Thiers was born at Marseilles, April 16, 1797; his father being a workingman. He received a liberal education, was admitted to the bar, and soon after took up his residence in Paris, where he drifted into journalism and politics. He was the most prominent leader in the revolution of 1830 which placed Louis Philippe upon the throne, and under the Orleans dynasty he filled several important Cabinet positions. Although taking no important part in the revolution of 1848, he gave in his adhesion to the Republic and voted for the Presidency of Louis Napoleon; but when the coup d'etat of the 2d of December, 1851, strangled the young Republic in its cradle, Napoleon repaid his previous support with arrest. In 1871, after the downfall of Louis Napoleon, M. Thiers was chosen President of the Republic. He resigned in 1873, on account of a vote of want of confidence in his administration. His successor was Marshal MacMahon, the present incumbent. M. Thiers was no less distinguished for his literary than his political achievements. His History of the French Revolution, in 10 volumes, is his most elaborate and best known work.

The funeral of M. Thiers took place on the 8th. On account of the widow of M. Thiers objecting to a state funeral, the Archbishop of Paris refused to allow the ceremonies to be held at the Madeleine, and they were therefore held at the parish church of Notre Dame de Lorette. The coffin was placed on an open hearse drawn by six horses and was followed by an immense procession to the cemetery of Pere la Chaise. Business was generally suspended throughout the city. Jules Simon made the principal oration. No political disturbance occurred, and the crowd dispersed without any excitement.

Mr. L. B. Wickliffe, of Bullitt County, Ky., writes to the Louisville Courier-Journal that Osman Pasha, of the Turkish army, is none other than R. Clay Crawford, a Tennessean by birth, who was a Colonel in the Federal army, and afterward in the military service of the Liberal Government of Mexico, where he was made a General of Division. The writer says he has known Col. Crawford for years, and has received letters from him since he attained his present rank in the Turkish army.

A project is on foot at New Orleans for digging a ship canal between New Orleans and Barataria Bay—an estuary of the sea that penetrates far into the land on the south coast of Louisiana. The distance from New Orleans to the Gulf of Mexico by this route would be only 58 miles. The cost of digging the canal is estimated would be only $5,000,000. Neither Government nor State aid is asked; the advocates of the canal solely ask Congress to grant them the right to use the tidal waters of Barataria Bay.

The Pennsylvania Republican State Convention was held at Harrisburg on the 5th. Capt. Wm. B. Hart was nominated for Treasurer, James P. Sterrett for Supreme Judge, and J. A. M. Passmore for Auditor-General. The platform declares in favor of the re-monetization of silver and of a protective tariff. The first resolution of the platform is as follows: "While we recognize and respect the difference of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayes towards the South, we are heartily in accord in honoring the patriotic motives which have guided him, and in hoping that the results of this policy will be peace, good will, and the complete recognition of the equal rights of all men in every section of the country; and to the efforts of his Administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected, we pledge our hearty and cordial support."

The Massachusetts Greenbackers have nominated a State ticket, headed by Wendell Phillips for Governor. The resolutions adopted demand the repeal of the specie redemption act; restoration of the silver dollar as a full legal tender; abolition of taxation on mortgaged property; stoppage of the further issue of gold bonds for sale in foreign markets; and reduction of public expenditures, and the rapid payment and extinction of all outstanding State and municipal debts. They also recommend that any and all money issued by the Government, whether of gold, silver or paper, should be full legal tender, and at all times convertible into Government bonds bearing a low rate of interest.

Orders have been issued for the apprehension of some of the principal agitators among the Indians in the disturbed regions of the West, with a view of placing them in confinement in Florida—a practice which has proved effective in quelling disorders among the Indians in the Indian Territory and elsewhere.

In disposing of his property, Brigham Young endeavored to make an equitable division between his 17 wives, 16 sons, and 28 daughters. The estate is valued at $2,000,000, and the will divides it so that all the legatees will have, with such other property as he has from time to time conveyed them, an equal proportion of the old man's goods. It has been decided by those in interest that the Mormon Church will henceforth be managed by a quorum of the Apostles, of whom John Taylor is virtually the head.

A very bad state of affairs is reported from Wilkesbarre, Pa. The striking miners, having apparently exhausted all their resources, are calling upon farmers and others in outlying districts for assistance, and wherever their requests for provisions are denied force is used. Barns, orchards, stock-yards and cellars are indiscriminately plundered; valuable cows are killed, and their hides left where they were slaughtered; itinerant peddlers are plundered of their packs; potato-fields are invaded and their produce carried off. Gov. Hartman has determined to place a regiment of three-months men in the disturbed district to co-operate with the regulars.

President Hayes and family, together with Attorney-General Devens and Postmaster-General Key, attended the Soldiers' reunion at Marietta, O., on the 7th.

At the election in California, held on the 5th, the principal interest centered in the election of members of the Legislature, by whom it is to be chosen a United States Senator to succeed Senator Sargent, whose term expires in 1879. The result of the election, it is claimed, will give the Democrats a majority of 38 on joint ballot.

Justice Bradley, of the United States Supreme Court, has published a card in a Newark paper, indignantly denying the accusation that he suddenly and mysteriously changed front in the case of Florida from Tilden to Hayes, during the session of the Electoral Commission.

President Diaz is about to replace the local military force along the Rio Grande with 1,500 regular troops from Vera Cruz, under command of Gen. Gonzales. The reason assigned for placing this somewhat formidable army along our frontier is that the local authorities are so hostile to the Americans that they can not be used by President Diaz and his subalterns to enforce the terms of the extradition treaty between the United States and Mexico.

The Maine election, held on the 10th, resulted in the re-election of Selden Connor, Republican, for Governor, by a majority of about 6,000. The Legislature will be strongly Republican in both branches. Connor's majority last year was about 15,000.

They were pursued by soldiers and friendly Indians and brought back to camp on the 5th, where Crazy Horse was treated as a prisoner. While being disarmed he drew a knife and wounded one of his guards, an Indian, severely. Crazy Horse himself was stabbed in the side and dangerously wounded. There was great excitement among the Indians, and the troops were placed under arms, ready for any emergency.

his feet and legs until he consented to open the combination of the safe. They then walked off with the contents, some $32,000 in cash, leaving one man to guard their prisoner until they had gotten off safely with their booty. Myers was quite roughly handled.
